The Political Arena

DR. JOHN ALEXANDER, another "young blood," seeks election to Orange City Commission, and perhaps follows in the footsteps of his late and lamented uncle, Dr. Walter G. Alexander, who was rated one of New Jersey's most erudite and powerful figures in medicine and politics.

John is married to the vivacious Emmy Lou and father of three children. He completed Orange elementary and high schools, graduated from Lincoln University and Meharry Medical College. His residency was at Homer Phillips Hospital, St. Louis, Mo. He then came home to practice from 1945 to 1952, when he entered the army as captain in the Medical Corps. Upon discharge he returned to N. J. where he served his residency in Pediatrics at Newark Babies Hospital, 1955 to 1957, and now specializes in pediatrics, offices in Orange.

He is on the staffs of Orange Memorial Hospital, St. Mary's Hospital, Babies Hospital and Presbyterian Hospital, Newark and Essex County.

ATTORNEY VAN Y. CLINTON, Newark, relinquishes his position in the Attorney General's office to confidently toss his hat into the political arena for Essex County Freeholder.

Although young in age as politicians go, Van is not new to political campaign tactics, having run for Assemblyman in a former election, chalking up considerable votes against great odds.

He is a member of Essex County Bar Assn., and former member of Newark Rent Control Board. He was recently appointed to a position with North Jersey Water Commission. A graduate of Rutgers University and Rutgers University Law school, he practices in Newark. He is a veteran of World War II, serving as 1st Lieutenant for four years in the Signal Corps. Married to one of Newark's efficient Board of Education social workers, and father of one child.

In The Political Arena

PHILLIP THIGPEN, representing "new blood," age 31, flings his hat into the arena for Newark councilman, Central Ward. Honor grad, Seton Hall University, class of '52, and further equipped with two years of law study at Seton Hall Law School under a John Marshall scholarship. Past Exalted Ruler, Pride of Newark Lodge, I.B.P.O.E. of W., member Platons, Inc., and Vice-President Old Time Athlete Association. At present he is a Probation Officer.

IRVINE I. TURNER, no novice in the arena, seeks re-election from Central Ward. First man of color to be elected Newark councilman, he has held the post four years. Entrenched in his embattled stronghold oftentimes he has waged verbal battles single handed in many city government issues, as well as those affecting his race group. He has been endorsed by the Baptist Ministers Conference, as well as the Interdenominational Ministers Alliance.

WILLIAM "Bill" STUBBS, used car owner and salesman. Several years a prominent political figure in Newark's old Third Ward, now Central Ward, seeks to wrest the position from Turner. Stubbs' equipment for the fray, are his political campaign capabilities, a well organized machine, and counsel from some of Newark's shrewdest political minds.

Thus the mingling of "new" and "old blood" on the political front makes a bright splash in the arena, with some 46 candidates vying for the nine council seats.

MERIT IN THEIR CHOSEN FIELDS

CLUB 83—NEWARK stronghold of veteran baseball players in moments of relaxation, as well as fashionable cafe society, was recently the scene of a gay gathering as friends joined in a party to speed major leaguers on to Spring training.

JOYCE LANGFORD

BARBARA WASHINGTON

MAKE THEM GOOD-WILL AMBASSADORS

Newark Council spearheads a movement to include the two teenagers above, in the July 1958 United Nations "Around the World" good-will tour, which will carry two young people selected by judges in a recent AAUN contest.

Barbara and Joyce were among the seven finalists in the recent UN contest, but failed to be selected as winners. One of the judges stated—"We had a difficult time, they were neck-to-neck. We were amazed at every one of them, particularly their literary background."

The Newark Council feels that the countries to be visited by the UN selected students, would receive a truer picture of American Democracy at work, were Negroes included in the tour.

To this end, the Newark Council appeals to all individuals—to all Clubs (civic, social, religious, fraternal) to rally to this worthy cause by making a check payable to "YOUTH GOODWILL AMBASSADOR FUND" and mailing it at once to Mrs. Slaughter Tate, 204 Orange Street, Newark, N. J., who is 1st Vice president of Newark Council, and the chairman of this fund raising committee.

Other committee members, Newark Council president Miss Purno B. Hillman, Council 2nd vice president Sally Cooke Young, Council members Mrs. Rosamond S. Marrow and Julia Walden; also Dr. Antoinette Fried of Fuld Neighborhood House and Attorney Herbert Tate who was chairman of the contest for Newark Chapter AAUN.

Here is an opportunity for every individual and club throughout the State who thinks in terms of worthy causes to play an important role. Do not delay—send your check at once, since time is of the essence. Hold a meeting (a call one, if necessary)—make your decision as to how much this cause is worth to you—then let it be generous!

The Council's national theme this year is emphasis on "YOUTH"—and with this in mind, the Council has taken the initiative in arousing the public to this challenge.

Other designers (not pix) Zoma Terrell, Eula Grobes, Dorothy Edwards, Sadie Veney, Mary Anderson, Willa Rawlins, Emily Miles, Lille LaMele, Josephine Holmes, Amaza Bennett. Another feature was Epsilon's selection of senior and junior best dressed males, James H. Fultz, Sr., and Samuel Stewart, Jr., respectively.

Evelyn Moore features the latest swim suit, tresses topped with a Miles' creation for swimming—Ann Jackson another Belle Meade model, who aside from modelling is hailed in North Jersey as an exceptionally fine designer of wearing apparel.

Emily Miles on stage with model Thelma Doggett, guest model from Philadelphia, deftly demonstrates her superior ability in creating chapeaux, by draping a Miles creation on the model's head—to the delight of the audience.

Jean Quatermain

AMERICA'S GREAT LECTURER, AUTHOR, DANCER

JEAN QUATERMAIN is half Algonquin Indian, and half East African. In Africa where she has lectured and lived for years she is welcomed as an "Indian". Since American films have led Africans to believe all American Indians are dead they think of her as being from India, a nation most Africans look to with respect. Her dances have been learned on American Indian reservations, rubber plantations of Liberia and Ceylon, native villages of French West Africa and the outdoor night-clubs of the Gold Coast and Nigeria. Educated at Barnard College she has written articles on the problems of colonialism and Asian and African nationalism for the Christian Science Monitor and the Herald Tribune. As an unofficial good-will ambassador she has lectured in Africa, Asia and America from the age of 10, and is an executive member of the Asian-African Organization at the United Nations.

Miss Quatermain will bring to her audience much of the folklore and the mysterious "witch doctor" fantasies, as heard and witnessed by her in her trips throughout the "Dark Continent." She will bring first-hand stories of the ceremonies surrounding the creation of Ghana as a free State on the Gold Coast, and many other interesting features gathered by her as an eyewitness.

Combined with the magic of her words, will be her interpretative dancing of many of the tribes, when she is presented by THE BUILDERS, May 23rd at Vernon L. Davey High School, East Orange, 8:30 P.M. The group is a non-profit organization dedicated to the support of religious work.

The Builders have done much toward cultural growth of the community. President L. B. Elliott, Mesdames Irene Butler, vice-president, Nettie Cole, treas., Dorothy Elliott, cor. secy., Viola Todd, recording secy. President Elliott invites the entire family to hear and witness Miss Quatermain.

For Whom We Mourn

WILLIAM VINCENT SLATEN, father of ten children. Born January 14th, 1904 in Newark, educated in Newark Public schools, and at an early age joined Bethany Baptist Church. At the time of his passing he was a Trustee Board member of Bethel Baptist Church, Jersey City where he had resided for a number of years.

Mourning their loss are his wife Joan, his mother, stepfather, four sisters, Edith, Mary, Martha, N. Beatrice and four brothers, Edward, Jesse, Harvey and Melvin, together with scores of other relatives and friends.

CLAUDIA PHILLIPS TUNNAGE of New Orleans, school teacher in that city more than 46 years. Just a few years ago she spent a year with her son George Phillips and his family in Montclair, at which time she will be remembered for her sincere interest in the North Jersey College Women's group to the extent she became an active affiliate. BEAUTY IS NOT GLAMOUR.

BARBARA ANNE DE LANEY.

ED. NOTE: Second installment in a series of Beauty articles by our Beauty editor, Barbara DeLaney. If you missed the introduction to "Beauty Is Not Glamour," we suggest you refer to CLUB WORLD, March '58 issue.

STEP I—SELF ANALYSIS: Stand before a mirror and look into it. Smile, turn from side to side. Look from head to foot. Check hair style, skin, arms, waist, hips (proportions), legs, etc. Don't be surprised at what you see—It's only you. Do you see the "you" that you like or the "you" that you dislike. Are you too fat, too thin. Give yourself the once-over, then ask yourself—"What is my attitude toward my body?" If you can face it, you have gone over the first hurdle and now one step forward to being a beautiful woman.

BEAUTY IS THE ASSEMBLAGE OF GRACE OR PROPERTIES: These graces include the woman's walk, manners, carriage, refinement, charm, feminine aspect and figure. Beauty being an assemblage of properties is found in sculpturing.

BEAUTY APPEALS TO THE SENSES—visual, olfactory, auditory, kinesthetic and gustatory.

a. VISUAL—A beautiful woman has a certain way to look. People get an impression of you immediately when they see you. There is a familiar saying that "The first impression is the lasting impression." It is very hard to change this "first." People have a tendency to judge one another by the way they look. A beautiful woman is clean. Her hair is in place. She wears proper clothing for the occasion and for her form. What a person sees when he looks at you determines what he thinks of you.

b. OLFACTORY—A beautiful woman must not only look beautiful, but she must smell beautiful likewise. Who would expect a beautiful woman to have B. O. (body odor). You would expect a pleasing fragrance of a light toilet water or perfume corresponding to the woman's personality.

I believe this is enough for my readers to digest in this issue. In our next issue we will discuss the Auditory, Kinesthetic and gustatory aspects related to "BEAUTY IS NOT GLAMOUR."

Sally's Chatterings

SALLY COOKE YOUNG

PUBLIC RELATIONS MIGHT BE THE THEME... of our Chatterings in this issue... particularly since it is akin to HUMAN RELATIONS... and our Newark Council National Council of Negro Women, Inc... Pryno B. Hillman, prexy... led by Elizabeth Tate (1st Vice)... spearheads a drive to raise a little over $3,000.00... 'ere July... to send Barbara Washington... and Joyce Langford (both of Newark)... as Good-Will Ambassadors with the UN expedition to foreign countries. (See story this issue... on other pages)....

HERE IS AN OPPORTUNITY FOR ALL CLUBS... to play an important role... by making a monetary contribution for this purpose... Much is said pro and con... about tripping the light fantastic... to our way of thinking tis a wonderful way to take a new lease on life....

BUT WHAT DOES IT PROFIT US!... Particularly when numerous and sundry of our clubs give dance after dance... weekly... and make mere token gestures (empty)... because of the sums (small)... contributed to charitable causes... in the face of the large amounts raised weekly thro dancing the whole night through.....

THEREFORE WITH THE COMING OF SPRING... Let us resolve.... why wait until New Year... that our clubs will do more PUBLIC RELATION work... thereby a real HUMAN RELATION job... Too long we've taken the attitude of let "George do it"... Let's measure up... and give your.... favorite magazine (CLUB WORLD)... something to put its teeth into when it records the activities of your organization... NOT JUST ANOTHER... and GALA DANCE... but a dance... WITH A PURPOSE!

SO MUCH FOR OUR CRUSADING... Now let's get down to the lighter side of your life.....

OFF TO PUERTO RICO FOR EASTER WEEK... went charming Ethel Tate (school marm)... remember she was our guest o'honor few years ago at your gal Sally's "Something For The Girls" party... she was accompanied by lovely and accomplished Pearl Harris (Asbury Park)... prexy of N. J. State Federation of Women's Clubs... Pearl returned just in time to be the guest speaker at 50th ann'y celebration of Afro-American Industrial Club of Jersey City... and to pick up her gavel later presiding at Quarterly session of Federation in Roselle (at which time lovely Estelle Morris... beloved mom of our dear friend over the years... Mildred Morris Williams... was honored for her years of service in Federation)... By the way you did know that Mildred ("Mimi") is ailing... send her a get-well-but quick card at her home Cleveland Street... Orange.....

OFF TO EUROPE AND GAY PAREE... on beautiful steamship Liberte went enterprising Renee Starks (Renee's School of Fashion-French Designing)... for a three months stay... (you recall a few years ago... she spent two years in gay Paree)... Prior to sailing... her students tossed a gay and lavish bon voyage party.....

SEEMS THO YOUR GAL SALLY CAN'T TAKE A PLANE... NOR STEAMER TO GET AWAY FROM IT ALL... but joining auld friends over the tea cups... can be a happy experience... as our recent session with a bevy of lovely lassies up at home of pretty Gertie Bailey (E. O)... when her sister Alma Ray entertained her pinochle group... En route home (after eve of refreshing chatter... luscious refreshments... and simply divine gifts... the pretty Dottie Davis (Elizabeth)... another of Alma's guests... compared her notes with your gal Sally... we chalked it up... as nicest eve ever!!!!

THERE WAS THAT ELEGANT DAY OF DAYS... when lovely Barbara Mickey and handsome hubby Dr. Harry W... picked up phone... and asked us up to the palatial home (So. Orange)... for brunch and celebration of our beloved hubby Scott's natal day... excellent cuisine... "happy birthday cake"... (for Scott)... relaxing in recreation room designed for good living... listening to hi-fi recordings (entire set built in wall... masterly piece of carpentry)... by none other than the good doctor himself... time fled on wings...

EARLY VACATIONIST ASSURED A GALA TIME... Glamorous Juanita Mulford (Newark)... off to St. Louis visit with life-long pal former Alcidine Carter (married name escapes us at moment) and her hubby...

RETURNED FROM SUNNY CLIME CRUISE... to Puerto Rico... elegant Dr Laura Harris (widow of famous Dr Chas. M.)... accompanied by Dr Marie Carpenter (Jersey City)... NAFAD's selection of 10 best dressed women... cont'd on 35

MAKE NOTE IN YOUR REGISTER... as one of the most thoughtful, the charming Florence Berry (E. O.) Bethany Baptist church member, and of the Women's Auxiliary Postal Alliance... who entertained a number of persons... who had over the year aided her in presentation of programs for church and Postal Alliance group... Then come May 16th she will entertain East Orange Postal Alliance fellows... a yearly affair in memory of her late beloved hubby Clarence... former member East Orange Alliance Branch...

ANNUAL CARD PARTY OF ST ANN'S GUILD (St Philip's Episcopal)... may not carry the elegance created at some of the swank downtown spots... but the gathering recently at the Parish House... created an immense... measure of pleasure... as we greeted old line families and friends... Lucye B. Harrington Lee... Mary Radcliffe... Blanche Morse... Mrs Cleo Palmer... Nana Davis... (wearing one of those elegant chapeaux of printed silk)... Alma Pinkman... (reporting that hubby Carter does well)... Ann Price (reminding us of Delta, Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority card party at the Sterington House)... Connie Travis Booker... and her friend Viola Griffin... with our dear friend Ellen Brown (we had a gay time with cards)...

ON EITHER SIDE OF THE ROOM... were cute and pretty Mary Pitts Jones (B&P "Queen of the Roses" 1958... regaling us with news of the New York chapter LKM County Fair she attended at Renaissance)... and lovely Ruth Garrett (B&P "Rose Queen" 1957)... The gracious Mrs Bowles (our dear friend LeEtta Brown Labega's sister)... beauteous Edna Starks... of Union... delightful and entertaining Ruth Hazelwood... and many others...

PREXY OF THE GUILD... gracious and charming Editha Free... certainly had the good will... and good help of her corps of efficient workers... among them Margaret DeMund... lovely Marion Sandoz... personable Jean Cason... elegant Ann Marie Federicks... and others...

NOW ONLY THE DREAMIEST CHAPEAUX... THE MOST ELEGANT... FROCK... will do... says one lass to another... as they prepare for Twelve and One's ultra smart bridge-luncheon (held only once every two years)... this time at swank Newarker Restaurant (Airport)... Hostesses of "charm circle"... Edna Bland... Carolyn Cassio... vivacious Thomasina FitzRoy... Helen Fullilove... pretty Frances Gear... Laura Longshore... Lena Jones... Hattie Maddex... Marjorie Marrow... Carrye Nesbitt... Peggy Pogue... and Bernice Sims... as well as Juanita Sparks... Lush details in our next Chatterings...

SHADES O'CHRISTIAN DIOR!... What shall we wear to the Balls... seem to be tune of fashionable lassies as they prepare for Merry Month O' May... and three formals following close on heels of t'other...

WELL CHEMISE... SACK... TRAPEZE OR BAG... your gal Sally anticipates happy time at Kappa Psi Phi Formal... at Irvington House... since we learned charming Anita and handsome hubby Roland Henson (Balto) will be guests of our affable host Wilcox Brandon (Barringer H. S. science prof)

LAST YEAR'S GOWN OR YEAR BEFORE... won't do at all for Annual Formal of The Women... following week... but our hostess Nellie Wahlstrom Flemming (of the luminous eyes)... is expecting us...

CAN'T REMEMBER OUR GOWN FOR OMEGA PSI PHI... Formal of the last year... so it'll have to be brand new... to do justice to the elegance of Omegas... the following week...

N. C. MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY'S... regional meeting in Newark... brought quite a few dignitaries to town... among them the dashing Maude Hopkins (Pittsburgh N. C. Mutual exec)... who in between sessions... was royally entertained by her-home town friend pretty Lushia Taylor (our CLUB WORLD June '57 Cover Girl)... and her hubby handsome Milton... at their beautiful Newark dream-home...

THE WHOLE TOWN IS BUZZING... over the recent full-page resignation tendered by one of its most brilliant personalities... at recent meeting of her Sorority... wherein she relinquished her office as president (with just two more months to serve)... wherein she cited the lethargy of sorors... their inadequate support... and numerous other problems...

Playing the leads, NAT as W.C. Handy, EARTHA as "The St. Louis Woman" in what promised to be a decided hit in movie history from the standpoint of featuring a number of Negro "greats" in entertainment---- (Pearl Bailey - Cab Calloway - Ella Fitzgerald--Mahalia Jackson).

Also from the standpoint, it told the life story of a Negro, W.C. Handy as one of the great contributor's to American culture--now turns out to be even more significant--giving a double lift to the motion picture industry, with the release of ST. LOUIS BLUES following close on the heels of the death of the immortal "daddy of the blues"--William C. Handy.

CHAMPIONS

Never in the annals of pugilism has there been anyone approaching the superb mastery that is "Sugar" Ray's. Regaining the middleweight crown from Carmen Basilio merely accentuated the unbelievable wizardry of the greatest fighter of all time.
